

English Reader – 5

Worksheet – Chapter 11: The Half-Lie

A. Multiple-Choice Questions

1. The story 'The Half-Lie' teaches us the importance of _____.
 - a) Strength
 - b) Honesty
 - c) Wealth
2. The main character in the story told a _____.
 - a) Joke
 - b) Half-lie
 - c) Secret
3. The child lied because he was _____.
 - a) Proud
 - b) Afraid of getting punished
 - c) Excited
4. The truth was discovered when the teacher _____.
 - a) Asked questions
 - b) Called the police
 - c) Ignored the issue
5. The message of the story is that lying always leads to _____.
 - a) More trouble
 - b) Success
 - c) Friendship

B. Fill in the Blanks

1. The boy in the story told a ____ lie.
2. He lied because he wanted to avoid ____.
3. The teacher found out the truth by asking ____ questions.
4. The story shows that even a small lie can create big ____.
5. We should always tell the ____.

C. True or False

1. The boy told a half-lie to escape punishment. ()
2. The teacher punished him without listening. ()
3. The truth was discovered after questioning. ()
4. The story teaches that honesty is the best policy. ()
5. A half-lie is the same as telling the full truth. ()

D. Match the Following

- | | | |
|-------------|---|------------------------|
| 1. Half-lie | — | a) To avoid trouble |
| 2. Teacher | — | b) Discovers the truth |
| 3. Honesty | — | c) Best policy |
| 4. Boy | — | d) Told a half-truth |
| 5. Trouble | — | e) Caused by lies |

E. Short Answer Questions

1. Why did the boy tell a half-lie?
2. How did the teacher find out the truth?
3. What does the story teach us about honesty?
4. What happened when the boy lied?
5. Why should we avoid telling even small lies?