

English Reader -7

Chapter 6: The Luncheon -Worksheet

A. Multiple-Choice Questions (5)

1. 'The Luncheon' is written by _____.
a) O. Henry b) W. Somerset Maugham c) Ruskin Bond
2. The narrator meets the woman at a _____.
a) cinema b) restaurant c) library
3. The woman claims she never eats more than a _____.
a) banana b) snack c) sandwich
4. The narrator becomes worried because the woman keeps _____.
a) leaving b) ordering expensive dishes c) complaining
5. The narrator learns a lesson about _____.
a) money and caution b) friendship c) travel

B. Fill in the Blanks (5)

1. The narrator was a young _____.
2. The woman kept ordering _____ dishes.
3. She claimed she ate very _____.
4. The narrator paid the _____.
5. Years later, he met the woman's _____.

C. Match the Following (5)

- | | |
|-----------------|----------------------------|
| 1. Narrator — | a) Expensive lunch |
| 2. Woman — | b) Young writer |
| 3. Restaurant — | c) Pretended to eat little |
| 4. Bill — | d) Place of meeting |
| 5. Lesson — | e) Be cautious with money |

D. True or False (5)

1. The woman ordered only a sandwich. ()
2. The narrator had very little money. ()
3. The woman ate very little. ()
4. The narrator felt embarrassed at the end. ()
5. The story teaches a lesson about spending wisely. ()

E. Short Answer Questions (5)

1. Why did the narrator feel nervous during the luncheon?
2. What did the woman claim about her eating habits?
3. Why was the bill a shock to the narrator?
4. What lesson did the narrator learn?
5. Why is the story considered humorous?