

GK-3

Chapter 25: Regional Festivals – Worksheet

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Gangaur festival is mainly celebrated in:
a) Rajasthan b) Kerala c) Assam
2. Hornbill Festival is known as the Festival of Festivals of:
a) Nagaland b) Punjab c) Gujarat
3. Onam is celebrated in:
a) Karnataka b) Kerala c) Tamil Nadu
4. Hemis Festival is associated with which region?
a) Ladakh b) Sikkim c) Odisha
5. Chhath Puja is mainly observed in:
a) Bihar b) Goa c) Karnataka

Fill in the Blanks

1. _____ is a colourful festival celebrated in Rajasthan, dedicated to Goddess Parvati.
2. _____ Festival showcases the rich culture of the Naga tribes.
3. _____ is the harvest festival of Kerala.

4. Hemis Festival is celebrated in _____ Monastery.
5. Chhath Puja is a four-day celebration dedicated to the _____ God.

True/False

1. Gangaur festival is celebrated in the month of Chaitra. (True/False)
2. Hornbill Festival is a one-day event. (True/False)
3. Onam includes boat races and floral decorations. (True/False)
4. Hemis Festival honours Lord Padmasambhava. (True/False)
5. Chhath Puja is celebrated immediately after Holi. (True/False)

Match the Following

- | | |
|----------------------|--------------|
| 1. Gangaur | a) Kerala |
| 2. Hornbill Festival | b) Bihar |
| 3. Onam | c) Rajasthan |
| 4. Hemis Festival | d) Nagaland |
| 5. Chhath Puja | e) Ladakh |

Short Answer Questions

1. What is special about the Gangaur festival?

2. Describe the main attractions of the Hornbill Festival.

3. Why is Onam considered a harvest festival?

4. What happens during the Hemis Festival?

5. Why is Chhath Puja an important festival in Bihar?