

GK-6

Chapter 14: Artificial Intelligence - Worksheet

A. Multiple Choice Questions

1. Who bought the rights to the operating system QDOS in 1981?

- a) Steve Jobs
- b) Bill Gates
- c) Larry Page
- d) Tim Berners-Lee

2. DNS was used by John and Paul in 1983 to access _____.

- a) Emails
- b) Apps
- c) Websites
- d) Maps

3. The first computer virus was named:

- a) Coder
- b) Creeper Virus
- c) Trojan
- d) WormX

4. Who developed the World Wide Web?

- a) Elon Musk
- b) Bill Gates
- c) Tim Berners-Lee
- d) Charles Babbage

B. Fill in the Blanks

1. In 1981, _____ bought the rights to a simple operating system called QDOS.
2. In 1983, DNS was used to access _____ over the Internet.
3. The first computer virus was known as the _____.
4. _____ created the modern Internet by developing the World Wide Web.
5. The _____ Bug created problems for digital and non-digital systems from 1999 to 2000.
6. _____ is a software that allows people to make free international calls.
7. _____ is the first biodegradable computer.

C. True or False

1. Bill Gates developed the World Wide Web. (True/False)
2. The Creeper virus was the first computer virus. (True/False)
3. Skype allows users to make free international calls. (True/False)
4. Iameco is the first biodegradable computer. (True/False)

D. Match the Following

- | | |
|--------------------|---------------------------------|
| A. Bill Gates | 1. First computer virus |
| B. Tim Berners-Lee | 2. First biodegradable computer |
| C. Iameco | 3. Bought QDOS |
| D. Creeper Virus | 4. Developed World Wide Web |

E. Short Answer Questions

1. What is the Millennium Bug?
2. Who developed the World Wide Web and why is it important?
3. What was the first computer virus called?
4. What is Skype used for?
5. What makes Iameco unique compared to other computers?