

GK-7

Chapter 5: Birds and Fishes - Worksheet

Multiple Choice Questions (MCQs)

1. Which birds migrate to India during winter?

- a) Sparrows b) Siberian Cranes c) Parrots d) Pigeons

2. Amur Falcons migrate mainly from:

- a) Australia b) Africa c) Siberia d) Europe

3. Which bird flies the longest migration distance?

- a) Arctic Tern b) Flamingo c) Seagull d) Eagle

4. Which fish can puff itself with water?

- a) Ratfish b) Lionfish c) Puffer fish d) Shark

5. Which fish has a pencil-shaped body?

- a) Pipefish b) Shark c) Ray fish d) Lionfish

Fill in the Blanks

1. _____ Cranes are snowy white migratory birds.

2. Amur Falcons feed near Doyang Lake in _____.

3. The _____ Tern flies more than any other species.

4. The _____ bird migrates from Arctic Tundra to the Himalayas.

5. The _____ fish has deadly poisonous spines.

True / False

1. Seagulls migrate thousands of kilometres to South Africa. (True/False)
2. Arctic Tern sees less daylight than most birds. (True/False)
3. Puffer fish increases its size to scare predators. (True/False)
4. Pipefish has bony armour plates. (True/False)
5. Sharks are the smallest predatory fish. (True/False)

Match the Following

- | | |
|--------------------|-----------------------------|
| A. Siberian Cranes | 1. Winter visitors to India |
| B. Arctic Tern | 2. Longest migration |
| C. Puffer fish | 3. Swells with water |
| D. Pipefish | 4. Pencil-shaped body |
| E. Lionfish | 5. Poisonous spines |

Short Answer Questions

1. Why do birds migrate?
2. What is special about the Arctic Tern?
3. What is unique about the puffer fish?
4. Where do Amur Falcons feed during migration?
5. Name any two migratory birds.