

Maths-5

Chapter 8: Average – Worksheet

A.MCQs (5)

1. The average of 10 and 20 is:

- a) 10 b) 15 c) 20

2. To find the average of numbers, we:

- a) Multiply all numbers b) Add numbers and divide c) Subtract numbers

3. The average of 5, 10, 15 is:

- a) 10 b) 5 c) 15

4. Average is also known as:

- a) Total sum b) Middle value c) Mode

5. If the sum of 4 numbers is 48, their average is:

- a) 12 b) 48 c) 4

B.Fill in the Blanks (5)

1. Average = _____ ÷ Number of items.

2. The average of 12, 18 is _____.

3. To find the average, first we find the _____ of the numbers.

4. The average of 8, 8, 8 is _____.

5. The sum of 6, 7, 9 is 22, so the average is _____.

C.True or False (5)

1. The average of 4, 6 is 5. ()
2. Average can be found by dividing the largest number by the smallest.
()
3. All numbers must be added to find their average. ()
4. The average of equal numbers is the same number. ()
5. The average of 2, 4, 6, 8 is 4. ()

D.Activities (5)

1. Take the ages of 5 friends and find their average age.
2. Record the temperatures of 5 days and calculate the average temperature.
3. Create 5 sets of three numbers each and find their averages.
4. Measure the lengths of 5 objects in your room and find the average length.
5. Make a bar graph showing marks of 4 subjects and calculate the average marks.